

A hand-drawn floor plan diagram of a bathroom area. At the top, there is a horizontal line representing a wall or ceiling, with two vertical lines extending downwards from it. Below this, the text 'DIS.' is written in a simple, blocky font. In the center, there is a large, irregular shape representing a bathtub or shower area, with a vertical line extending upwards from its top edge. To the left of this shape, the text 'A.C.' is written. To the right of the shape, the text 'BAGNO' is written. At the bottom, there is a horizontal line representing a wall or floor, with several vertical lines extending upwards from it, suggesting a doorway or a partition.
